SABOTAGE SWEEPS THRU RUHR; ACTS OF VIOLENCE MANY

Dusseldorf, March 16.—One French soldier was killed and three others injured as German railroad workers acted as saboteurs swept through the Ruhr today. The workers were bombed and attempts were made to wreck trains in several parts of the occupied areas.

NO DETOUR WILL BE NECESSARY AT THE PALEY CROSSING

Sup't. Westcott Relieves
the Situation to Satisfaction of All by Making Announcement.

TRAFFIC TO GO ON

Superintendent of Roads has asked to inform our Current friends, who are all het up over the building of that underground crossing at Paley's farm to eliminate the present grade crossing of the B. & P. Ry., that their fears are unfounded and while the crossing will be closed for a few days, the crossing will be placed as per the decree of the Public Service Commission and authorization of the State Highway Department, no detour will be necessary. The new crossing and approach to a new will not interfere with the present traveled road and during all the time of its construction will not interfere with traffic for an instant.

This will indeed be welcome news to the people who travel the Clearfield Carversville road.

Sandy Ridge Detour Closed.

During the same conversation with Superintendent Westcott he asked
The Progress to inform the public that the detour at Sandy Ridge to the new road over the mountain to Tyrone is absolutely impassable and has been closed while the old road from Sandy Ridge over the mountain has been opened and while the going is pretty heavy it can be traveled. Mr.
Westcott had a road machine and crew on this road for a day or two.

Objects to "MURPHIES" WITH THEIR
JACKETS ON; MAKES TARGET OF WIFE
BUT WIFE, AS USUAL, LAUGHS LAST

This may be a "free country alright," and we guess it is—with limitations, but there are a whole darn lot of things that used to be considered alright "custom of the country," that don't arise up that way any more, and while we have harped on this same subject several times before and just recently at that we want to rise right here once more to assert without fear of contradiction that it is dangerous to be a mighty serious and dangerous proposition to attempt to lick your wife.
Before the women were accorded equal rights many fellows who used judgment enough to pick themselves a little one, could haul off at will
and hang a shanty on wifey's left eye whereupon the meek and lowly help next would promptly turn about and offer the other eye for decoration.

That is all over and done with now in Clearfield county at least,
and if you don't believe us try to hit the "old woman" in the eye with a pot: when you get home to dinner see what you get. Peter Shoe-stack, of Smoke Run, found out all about it yesterday and as a result that of is now getting free board down at Sheriff Tom Lowell's "county jail."

When Shoetack went to his Bigler township home yesterday his wife placed a big dish of potatoes "biled in their jackets" on the table for dinner. Peter was somewhat in his rue and when that way nothing makes him madder than to have to peel potatoes before eating them. He promptly socked the wife of his bosom in the eye with one of the potatoes and followed this up with a general potato barrage, and when the spuds ran out gently swatted Mrs.
Pete several times on the jaw.

On account of the conditions we have already set out Mrs. Pete wouldn't stand it and going down to Madara got a warrant for friend husband from Squire Jim Ruffner.
Deputy Constable Ralph Hileman went to the Shoetack home to arrest Peter and when he entered the home found Pete making himself up a batch of moonshine.

Shoetack, his still, a barrel of mash and some finished product were taken in tow and brought before the Justice and now the offender is behind the bars at Fort Lowell on the double charge of beating his wife and attempting to circumvent Andy Volstead and his minions. When you swat your wife nowadays, men, the law is heard 'round the whole darn county. Have a care.

Fascisti Movement Spreading Swiftly THREATENS TO SWEEP FROM ITALY TO CEN- TRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

By HENRY W. WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Geneva. (By mail to United Press.)
—Following the successful rise to power of the Fascisti in Italy, Central and Eastern Europe are verging steadily towards Fascisti.

Bavaria, Hungary and Russia all now have Fascisti organizations which correspond in all their fundamental organization, membership, purpose and methods with that of Italy.

Although in variations exist in each country, both in organization, and purposes, as the result of local political, economic and other conditions, the origin and character of the movement in all the countries where it has to date sprung into being, is surprisingly the same.

This international wave may be roughly characterized as a spontaneous expression of determination on the part of the younger and more hardly elements, of each country to take into their own hands the reform of certain conditions which are due either to the lack of laws, or the inadequate enforcing of those existing.

Generally speaking, the movement has found its most vigorous growth in those countries where political conditions were most unsettled and where a new force was necessary to insure the attainment of the ends desired.

The movement is being viewed both with alarm and with approval, depending largely upon the interests of those most affected by it.

Naturally, in those countries where it exists, it is being viewed with great alarm by governments in charge, as almost invariably it aims at the eventual overthrow of weak, incompetent governments.

May Be Remedy.
Students of political conditions generally, however, are not so ready to give their seal of disapproval. They are not at all convinced but what this may offer the one and only means for the final readjustment of the unsettled political conditions in Europe resulting from the war.

More than one European government, composed of the old time statesmen who were in power before the war, have showed themselves inadequate to meet the demands established by the war.

Unless some newer, younger,
stronger element comes into power and takes the reins both of government and responsibility, the outlook is considered dark not only for individual countries but for Europe generally.

In Italy, the only country where the new Fascisti element has risen to power, the change to date has admittedly been most beneficial. The Mussolini element in three months have done more to establish internal order and place the internal of Italy, as well as her economic life generally on a sound basis than all the other governments for the three years preceding.

As a consequence, Italy gives more indication for the moment of quick reconstruction and readjustment from the war than any other European country that was as seriously affected as was she.

JUDGES BECHTOL AND BERGER ARE UNDER CHARGES

Disbarred Lawyer Gets
Back at the Schuylkill
Judges, Filing Serious
Charges at Harrisburg.

WOULD IMPEACH

Harrisburg, Mar. 15.—Judges Harry Oliver Bechtel and Charles E. Berger, of the Schuylkill county court are gravely accused in requests for their impeachment filed at Harrisburg yesterday.

Judge Bechtel is president of the court and Judge Berger his associate.
The charges were filed with Speaker Goodenough, of the House of Representatives, by William Wilhelm, a lawyer, who has been disbarred from practice.

The Speaker referred the accusations to the House Judiciary Committee, which is asked to ascertain whether the charges have enough basis to warrant appointment of a committee of investigation. The procedure in the impeachment of a judge is for the committee to act as a grand jury and determine whether there shall be a trial. If it so finds the Senate conducts the trial.

Twenty-one counts, chiefly alleging personal immorality, are listed against Judge Bechtel, and thirteen all relating to his conduct on the bench, against Judge Berger. Both are accused of being "under the thumb" of brewery and saloon interests and using their license-granting privileges for their friends.

The petition further charges that State Treasurer Charles A. Snyder has knowledge of Judge Bechtel's infringement of the Act of 1917, which gives him undue influence over his judicial action.

William Wilhelm, who accuses the judges, was disbarred in Schuylkill county in 1921, and the Supreme Court, sitting in Philadelphia, upheld the disbarment. He was accused of using a client's money for his own purposes. He also was accused of interfering with proper administration of justice by furnishing an assistant district attorney with a copy of the trial judge's notes.

As far back as 1909, Wilhelm made a vigorous attack on the judges of Schuylkill county, of whom Bechtel was then one. He spoke in general terms of "rascals on the bench." He was an unsuccessful non-partisan candidate for the State Supreme Court in 1914.

PUNKS "DRY" SQUAD PUT IN A BUSY THREE WEEKS; VISIT FOUR COUNTIES AND MADE BIG HAULS EVERYWHERE

Make Jump From Heilwood To
Clarion County, Then To
Clarion In Centre County,
For Big Hauls.

Group Herd Ballantine's flying squadron of "hootch hounds" from the Punkstown district headquarters, is throwing consternation in big chunks into the moonshiners and bootleggers long operating throughout this mountain region without apparent fear of detection or arrest. As a result of their cross-country flights the past three weeks they have left behind them a wide-spread path of destruction of stills, mash and moonshine extending across Clearfield, Centre, Clarion, Jefferson and Indiana counties, and accordingly there is much wailing and gnashing of teeth in their wake.

The clean-ups at DuBois, Horatio and Heilwood have already been given space in our paper. The activities we are about to record occurred during this week. The "dry cavalry," who are said to "eat in their saddles," is led by Federal Agent N. M. Cress and made up of Operatives Rankin, Mussell and Quinn. On Monday they raided the hotel of William Lennon at St. Petersburg, Clarion county, the store of Francis Foust and the farm home of Steve Bukas, at Knox, in the same county. At each place they captured much contraband moonshine, while the last named Steve was stew-ing some mash in his still when the
"revenuers" pinched him.

These sassy dry fellows even had nerve enough to invade the political empire of "King David" Chambers, down at Clarion in Centre county on Wednesday last and promptly cut up high links with John Katchik's hotel political headquarters for the big boss and his cohorts. The "drier ap," innocently invaded the bar and had no trouble in having Landlord Katchik serve them with the best the house afforded. The "educated" palates of the raiders told them the "best in the house" was entirely "too good" for sale under either Andy Volstead's or
the Woner Act and Landlord Katchik was apprised of that fact when a warrant was flashed upon him.

A search of the hotel netted the
"dry boys" sixteen cases of Hork-Vino, with an alcoholic content of 15 to 20 per cent, a quantity of run of the mill moonshine, several cases of cordials, wine, etc., and a couple of barrels of beer of such constitute parts that even the raiders hope to be able to find some more time.

PETITION ASKS FOR PAROLE OF M'KEE, SLAYER OF TUBBS

82 Representatives of Ferguson and Knox
Twps. Ask That He Be Returned to Home.

HOME BROKEN UP

A petition signed by eighty-two of the representative citizens of Fergeuson and Knox townships, neighbors of Abe McKee, now under sentence of twenty months in jail for involuntary manslaughter for the killing of E. H.
Tubbs last summer, was presented to Judge Bell yesterday asking that Mc-Kee be paroled in order that he may look after his family of six children, the oldest of whom is 16 and the youngest six years. McKee is a widower and had been both father and mother to his little ones since the death of his wife several years ago.
The petition recites McKee's previous good character and standing in the community and asks the court to release him in order that he may again gather up his little family which has been scattered to the four points of the compass since McKee's imprisonment.

Judge Bell ordered the petition placed on file but thus far has taken no other action upon it.

NEW BETHLEHEM TO STAND PAT IN THE BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Principal Harkless, In Letter to the Press,
Says DuBois Player
Started All Trouble.

WANTS A HEARING

During the last DuBois-New Bethlehem basketball game at the Clarion country town a small-sized near-riot occurred when after three had been called at the end of the game one of the DuBois players elbowed a New Bethlehemite. Since that time DuBois has been threatening to put New Bethlehem out of the High School League, which action or attitude moved Principal Harkless of New Bethlehem High to issue the following statement:

New Bethlehem, Pa.
Gentlemen:—

As principal of the New Bethlehem schools and a citizen of the town I have read with deep resentment and indignation the scandalous story in which the DuBois basketball player played the incident which occurred at the DuBois game here up in the papers. Ninety per cent of this tale as they have told it is pure unadulterated falsehood. Amusing too is the posing of the coach as the Moses leading his team out of the wilderness.

The events of that night were exactly as follows:—The game started clean, and at the end of the first half the score stood 9-5 in favor of Du-Bois, the heavy team of the latter easily outplaying New Bethlehem.

This was not a satisfactory score, however, for the DuBois outfit had expected to run away with the locals, so they came back the second half and Burns took the lead in starting the dirty work. He did not get far with it until he bumped into J. Carlos, and these two just laid aside basket ball and went after each other. The result, Mr. Hall of Punky, a capable, honest official, called four, warned the teams again and again, and did everything in his power to run the game fairly. Finally after Burns had tripped Carlos, and Carlos in plain view of the official had come back at him, Carlos was put out of the game.

After the game the first thing that occurred was that Burns walked over to Carlos and asked him if he meant it when he came back at Burns in the game. Carlos replied in the affirmative, and Burns slugged him. This started the trouble. I saw the trouble

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

by J. D. C.

A real tragedy of the woods and no doubt but one of many was discovered on the mountains north of Kennedy Park Game Reserve Sunday last by Otis Carns, of Mt. Zion. Carns has a hunting camp on state land at the headwaters of Lick Run, just beyond the Crystal Springs holding, and when out for a hike Sunday decided to visit the camp for the purpose of looking things over. At the foot of a ridge below the camp is a well-frequented runway for deer and making his way through the snow down to this runway thinking to see a deer or two Carns came upon the mute evidence of a real tragedy along the runway lay the headless carcasses of two half grown deer. All around the carcasses were the signs of a will case which had been going off the dead fawns.

The young deer, a buck and a doe, had evidently seen the paw of hungry wild cats and while attempting to get away from the cats during the deep snow, which for most of the winter was piled up to a depth of four feet on the level, had plunged into the hole where their bodies were found and had their throats ripped and torn by the sharp teeth and claws of their pursuers and were killed by the wild cats before they could get out.

The heads and necks of both deer were eaten off down to the shoulders, the cats still apparently feasting nightly on their kill. On his return trip to town Mr. Carns informed Game Keeper Reasick at Kennedy Park of his gruesome find and while outside the reserve Mr. Reasick is making up of art to trap the deer killers.

A Twentieth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution for the purpose of prohibiting the operation of the highly destructive automobile might be a good thing as Mr. Bowery Boatlegger friend pointed out yesterday, but we can't load up with proposition as that just now, with the trout fishing season but 29 days distant. No, sirree, out in Okla. some they place their telephones some times in the summer kitchens. Last week one day a woman was talking over the phone when she heard her next door neighbor on the "party line" take down the receiver and start to listen in on the conversation. Dangling her phone the injured lady cursed a revolver and knowing the location of the neighbor's phone she asked out to the back yard. "If I find survey showed a section of the 'sevedropers' person exposed and taking careful aim the investigation fired. The listener quit listening instantly but as she was quite stout the attending physician said the wound while painful is not serious, but will require the patient to eat her meals off the mantel piece for a few days.

MRS. JOHN C. SMITH

The venerable Mrs. John C. Smith, mention of whose death at her farm home in Goshen township on Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, was made yesterday, was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of this region, wherein she spent all her entire four score years, loved and respected for her sterling christian womanhood by all who knew her.

Esther M. Fulton Smith was the daughter of the late Washington and Elizabeth M. Fulton, pioneer residents of this community and was born on the Fulton farm along the Susquehanna river in Lawrence township, near the mouth of Fulton tunnel. She was united in marriage with John C. Smith, who came to this section from Venango county, in 1865. The couple settled on their present fine farm near Shawville in Goshen township where they have resided ever since and where by industry and right living they reared a fine family and prospered finely.

Mrs. Smith united with the Methodist Episcopal church in early girlhood and ever lived a consistent christian life. She was ever the old fashioned Godfearing loving wife and mother who devoted her every energy to making her home the brightest spot in the hearts of her loved ones while finding time sufficient to do His will in all things.

She lived just past the four score mark in health and happiness until on Sunday last she was stricken with a sudden heart attack and at the end of the third day passed out of this life unto that temple not built by hands where she has undoubtedly entered into that reward prepared for those who served Him faithfully on earth.

Mrs. Smith leaves to mourn their great loss her husband, now in his 87th year, and the following sons and daughters: Harvey E., and Ralph, of Goshen township; Howard, of Clearfield; Mrs. Fred Wilson, of Bradford township; Arthur C., of Mansfield, N. Y.; Doris, wife of Rev. M. C. Fiegel, of Avis, Pa.; Miss Emma, of Cleveland, Ohio and Roy, of LeMars, Iowa. One brother, Geo. W. Fulton, residing on the old Fulton homestead, also survives her.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. Wallace of Shawville officiating and interment will be made in Goshen cemetery.

FROCKS FOR ALL-DAY WEAR SIMPLE AND WELL TAILORED

HOW remote the days seem when the neat but unromantic shirt-collared and the trim, tailored skirt occupied nearly all the horizon, in the realm of dress for all-day wear! They play but a small part now. Frocks began displacing suits a decade ago.

The all-day dress may be a one or two-piece affair. All interpretations of the blouse do their part to lend it variety. The mode decrees that it should have slenderizing lines, with the waistline low—that it shall not be shorter than seven inches from the floor, that the sleeves may indulge in vagaries, and, if it is simple, so much the better. Ingenious and original little touches in cut or in details of finishing are at a premium. Designers make a national reputation for themselves, turning out models that have individual touches, and the shops are full of "Sally" and "Betty" and "Barbara" and "Peggy" creations.

Two models that may be made in either wool or silk fabrics are pictured here as good examples of both the one and two-piece dress. The black crepe dress at the left has an interesting drapery drawn closely about the hips and quite full in front where a many-colored bead ornament is placed.

A plain skirt shorter than fashion demands and a plain blouse with several novel points, tell the story of the dress at the right. The wide belt is covered with folds of the material—the sleeves are draped and lined with contrasting crepe, which appears again in a cut-out portion of the blouse. It is decorated with stitchery.

A WOMAN'S VOICE

By Evelyn Hope

WHEN Owen Wayne's father died and left him at thirty-five the head of a big manufacturing plant, he resolved to keep it running as his father would have approved, and from a gay society favorite, he rapidly developed into a splendid business man with every detail of the business at his fingers' ends. He was at his desk one morning, absorbed in solving an intricate problem, when the call of the phone interrupted him and he took up the receiver only to hear a sweet voice say, "Excuse it please!" He hung up with a bang and exclaimed, "Confound those operators!" After resuming work he was puzzled about an important detail and called up a prominent banker only to find he had been given the wrong number. He was really a kind hearted man but this was the "last straw" and he spoke sharply to the operator, threatening to report her carelessness. "Please don't," she pleaded, "I need work and I am not well." Owen hastened to assure her he would not. "Sorry you are not feeling well," he said. "Won't you let me take you to lunch?" "We are not allowed to talk," she answered coldly, and shut off. All day her sweet, vibrant voice haunted him. The first thing he did the next morning was to call up Central and his heart leaped when he heard the voice.

"I called up to apologize for my rudeness yesterday," he said. "It does not matter, I am leaving today anyway," she replied.

"Won't you at least tell me your name? Mine is Owen Wayne."

"My name is Elsie," and she shut off.

Owen Wayne could not forget Elsie's sweet voice and sought in vain for any trace of her.

She accepted an invitation to a house party in the Adirondacks. It was a discouraged and lonely girl that sat bowed down with pain, leaning over her dresser. A friend who had been relieved of lumbago by Dr. Pierce's Anuric, a wonderful remedy for the kidneys, advised her to try it, which she did and found quick relief, the backache disappeared and she was once more a lively, strong girl—dancing and playing tennis. One evening there was a concert at the hotel for the benefit of the Red Cross and Elsie took part. When her sweet clear voice rang out, a man in a back seat started, and then almost shouted; he had found Elsie! and when he met her at the dance and she acknowledged that she also had not forgotten, he told her he did not intend to lose her again.

Folks everywhere have taken Anuric with excellent results. It flushes out clogged kidneys and drives away rheumatism and backache. Lewistown, Pa., "I had the flu and it seemed to have affected my kidneys. I had terrible headaches and pain in my back from which I was not relieved until I took Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. I had only taken part of a bottle until I was relieved. I also find them very beneficial for colds." Mrs. Devereux Hoffman, R. D. 4.

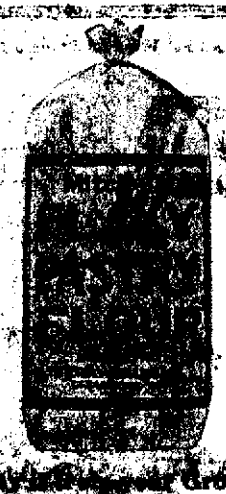

Sold by all druggists or send for trial package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Foster's Name On List Of Communists; Swears Witness At St. Joseph

St. Joseph, Mo., March 16.—The name of W. Z. Foster, alleged Communist on trial for violation of the Michigan Syndicalist Law, was on the list of delegates seized by authorities on raiding the alleged "Red" Convention at Bridgman last fall. Sheriff George Bridgman testified today.

The list was discovered with propaganda literature and official reports found in two barrels buried in the sand. Foster is the first of the seventy-six arrested to stand trial.

YOU'RE SAFE IN DRINKING OUR MILK

Everything has been done to make our milk as safe as any milk in the world can be. It comes from farms where the folks are mighty particular about the milk from the time the cow goes into the barn until the milk leaves the farm on our trucks. Then, when it comes to our plant every care is taken to keep the milk sweet and pure.

No time is lost putting the milk through the pasteurization process, after which the milk is kept at an even temperature until it reaches your table.

The Cause of Many a Smart Effect

Yes, the gown gets the applause, but the wearer applauds her Modart for the effectiveness it adds to the lines of the garment.

Yet, there is not the slightest evidence of being corseted in the usual sense of the word. No one and least of all the wearer is conscious of her Modart.

After you try a Modart you will feel that the designer who created the corset made it especially for you—not to fit you in some place, but every place.

—and you, like well-nigh a million other Modart wearers, will become convinced that there is only one corset for you, and that a Modart. There is no other corset like it.

MODART Always Front Laced CORSETS

A corset as splendidly designed as the Modart should be individually fitted to your figure. In our Corset Department we render this service without obligation.

When you see one of these lovely corsets—just the right Modart—ask for it. You will realize that it is the one corset for you.

TRUCK SERVICE THAT IS SERVICE

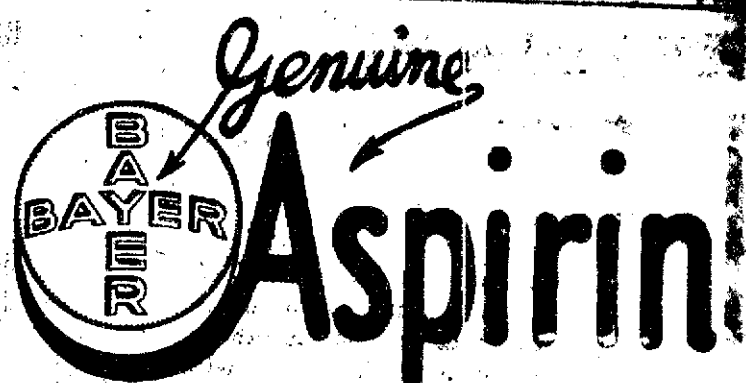

That word service is a much abused word but ask any truck owner who has his truck serviced here and you will find that his truck is on the road all the time and with a minimum of expense.

We can keep your truck there, too.

MADE TO GREET THE SPRING OF SMART, NOVEL FABRICS

WHEN its tulip time in Manhattan—or anywhere else—our eyes are going to be gladdened by out-of-the-ordinary suits like that shown here. They will be refreshing for they are made to greet the springtime, of new fabrics, skillfully used, in simple designs. Texture of the materials, colors and color combinations account for more than half their charm. These are the new knitted weaves in silk that lend themselves to the sort of dress that American women seem to like best—dress that is smart, and has a casual quality, that registers a vivid, pleasing impression at first glance and that is simple.

As for simplicity, the suit illustrated hardly needs a description—the picture tells its story so well. You can imagine it in blue and gray with a bodice of plain gray crepe de chine to which bands of plain blue, cut from the silk, are applied, with rows of little, round, gray pearl buttons set across the top of each band. The sleeves are banded with the striped material and the skirt and sleeveless jacket are made of it—the jacket lined with plain crepe de chine.

There are many color combinations and patterns in the new weaves that are inspiring to designers, for there is distinction in the suits made of them, and the mode demands distinction in suits with an insistence that has furthered the cause of the costume suit and put it in a place of first importance in spring wardrobes.

should give their older opponents a speedy battle.

While the above game is going on in Clearfield, Coach Mahaffie and Clearfield High's reserve five will invade Houtzdale and play the school team that rules the northern part of this county.

Although the Houtzdale are a difficult bunch to defeat on their home floor, the Red and Black's "little lightning lads" will give good account of themselves, and a C. H. S. victory is not improbable.

Preliminary at 7:15 At Gym Tonight

The C. H. S. Senior team will play the last Phillipsburg High Reserve as a prelim to the varsity-Huntingdon fray. Much student interest is centered in this battle, as the Seniors are leading the inter-class league and the game promises to be a real thriller.

Rotarians Favor County Library If Way Can Be Found To Establish It

The proposed county library for Clearfield county was the chief topic of conversation at last night's meeting of the Clearfield Rotary Club. The library question had been presented to the club heretofore by W. C. Pentz, Esq., of DuBois, and Miss McDowell of the State Library Extension Bureau at Harrisburg and last night's discussion followed exhaustive reports on the subject by Messrs. Ward O. Wilson and Charles T. Kurtz of the Educational Committee of the club. The committee appeared to be of the opinion that the people of the county as a whole were not sufficiently familiar with the library proposition to warrant its presentation; to them for a vote at this time, although the committee itself favors the idea.

Judge Singleton Bell in discussing the question gave it as his opinion that the time was not ripe for submission of the project to the people as it would require to establish it an

THE OLD HOME TOWN - By Stanley

"JUDGE" BILLOTTE A REAL SOLOMON

Leontes Mills, Pa., March 15.—Squire Billette's Court was unusually crowded yesterday by those who were interested in the controversy between Mike Oravis and John Shikliko, prominent residents of the Hunkytown section of Big Hill. The proceedings of the Court were hampered considerably on account of court interpreter Bolents having recently had all his teeth extracted and was unable to properly pronounce the many legal terms propounded by the Court as well as the questions answered by the many witnesses.

John and Mike had always been kind fathers, loving husbands and good neighbors, often drinking from the same bottle and never had an unkind word pass between them until the fatal day of March 10, about 4 p. m. John, like Charlie Voinchet's rat, had previously partaken from that one touch "which makes a howling dervish out of a monk, and a rabbit spit fire a wolfskin's eye" and was at this time much different from the ordinary.

John was returning from the Hunkytown Hill where he had been to get a supply of Sabbath luxury. Alleged Proprietor Joe had run out of bottles and John had to return with nothing but a skin full, which it appears was "heaped up, pressed down and running over." As John was passing the home of friend Mike Mike's Mrs. was out in the yard, and as John was just overflowing with "love, emotion and beer" and could not resist from offering some of his affection to friend Mike's fan, which was seriously objected to by Mike's Mrs. It was with much difficulty that John was persuaded to go home and shower his affections on his own wife. However John went home but not to stay. When Mike saw him coming back he immediately lay down a heavy barrage, consisting of kindlingwood, boots and shoes, tin cans, coal shovels and many other things too numerous to mention.

This however did not stop John and on he came. Mike then rushed into the house and procured an axe and gave John a terrific blow on the head, felling him to the ground; and fearing he might rise too quickly gave him a light tan on either side of the head, saying: "die, damn you, die." John's skull and its contents having been previously thoroughly saturated with Roman water, was very elastic and the terrible blow from friend Mike's axe had little effect on it. He immediately arose, went home and sent out an S. O. S. for first aid. Superintendent Davidson got his first aid team together and revived John sufficiently so that he was able to get to Squire Billette's temple of justice, and make information against the attempted murderer. The Court immediately ordered the arrest of Mike, the crucifier, and had him brought to court for trial. After hearing many witnesses and considering the affair from many angles His Honor thought that our country over had too many of these sort of cases in it, and ordered the fighters into a private room by themselves and there to decide who was the guilty one, and who should pay the costs. They were not long in fixing matters satisfactorily to the Court.

After hearing many witnesses and considering the affair from many angles His Honor thought that our country over had too many of these sort of cases in it, and ordered the fighters into a private room by themselves and there to decide who was the guilty one, and who should pay the costs. They were not long in fixing matters satisfactorily to the Court.

pered considerably on account of court interpreter Bolents having recently had all his teeth extracted and was unable to properly pronounce the many legal terms propounded by the Court as well as the questions answered by the many witnesses.

John and Mike had always been kind fathers, loving husbands and good neighbors, often drinking from the same bottle and never had an unkind word pass between them until the fatal day of March 10, about 4 p. m. John, like Charlie Voinchet's rat, had previously partaken from that one touch "which makes a howling dervish out of a monk, and a rabbit spit fire a wolfskin's eye" and was at this time much different from the ordinary.

John was returning from the Hunkytown Hill where he had been to get a supply of Sabbath luxury. Alleged Proprietor Joe had run out of bottles and John had to return with nothing but a skin full, which it appears was "heaped up, pressed down and running over." As John was passing the home of friend Mike Mike's Mrs. was out in the yard, and as John was just overflowing with "love, emotion and beer" and could not resist from offering some of his affection to friend Mike's fan, which was seriously objected to by Mike's Mrs. It was with much difficulty that John was persuaded to go home and shower his affections on his own wife. However John went home but not to stay. When Mike saw him coming back he immediately lay down a heavy barrage, consisting of kindlingwood, boots and shoes, tin cans, coal shovels and many other things too numerous to mention.

This however did not stop John and on he came. Mike then rushed into the house and procured an axe and gave John a terrific blow on the head, felling him to the ground; and fearing he might rise too quickly gave him a light tan on either side of the head, saying: "die, damn you, die." John's skull and its contents having been previously thoroughly saturated with Roman water, was very elastic and the terrible blow from friend Mike's axe had little effect on it. He immediately arose, went home and sent out an S. O. S. for first aid. Superintendent Davidson got his first aid team together and revived John sufficiently so that he was able to get to Squire Billette's temple of justice, and make information against the attempted murderer. The Court immediately ordered the arrest of Mike, the crucifier, and had him brought to court for trial. After hearing many witnesses and considering the affair from many angles His Honor thought that our country over had too many of these sort of cases in it, and ordered the fighters into a private room by themselves and there to decide who was the guilty one, and who should pay the costs. Put your faith in Kellogg's Bran—it relieves Chronic Constipation!

If you suffer with mild or chronic constipation, go after it right away! Constipation has probably wrecked more lives than any one human ailment. It is the basis of many diseases, leading even to such diseases as Bright's and diabetes. In its milder form constipation creates sick headaches, biliousness, dizziness, nausea, bad breath, pimples, etc. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve constipation permanently if it is eaten regularly. Kellogg's is ALL BRAN—that's why it acts as nature's perfect sweeper, cleanser and purifier. To safeguard your own health, to protect your family, serve Kellogg's Bran each day. As a constipation preventive or for mild cases, eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, as much with each meal. But keep at it persistently—heat constipation with Kellogg's Bran. Kellogg's Bran is a life saving and body-building food because it contains natural bran that other cereals contain as well as bran, a natural relief from constipation. Kellogg's Bran is sold in its original like flavor. It adds greatly to the taste of hot or cold cereals when sprinkled or mixed with them. It cooks it with hot cereals, allowing the table-spoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's Bran makes very delicious muffins, raisin bread, etc. Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, clubs and restaurants in food-vitamin packages. All grocers sell it.

Better!

ATLANTIC engineers have perfected a still better Atlantic Motor Oil—

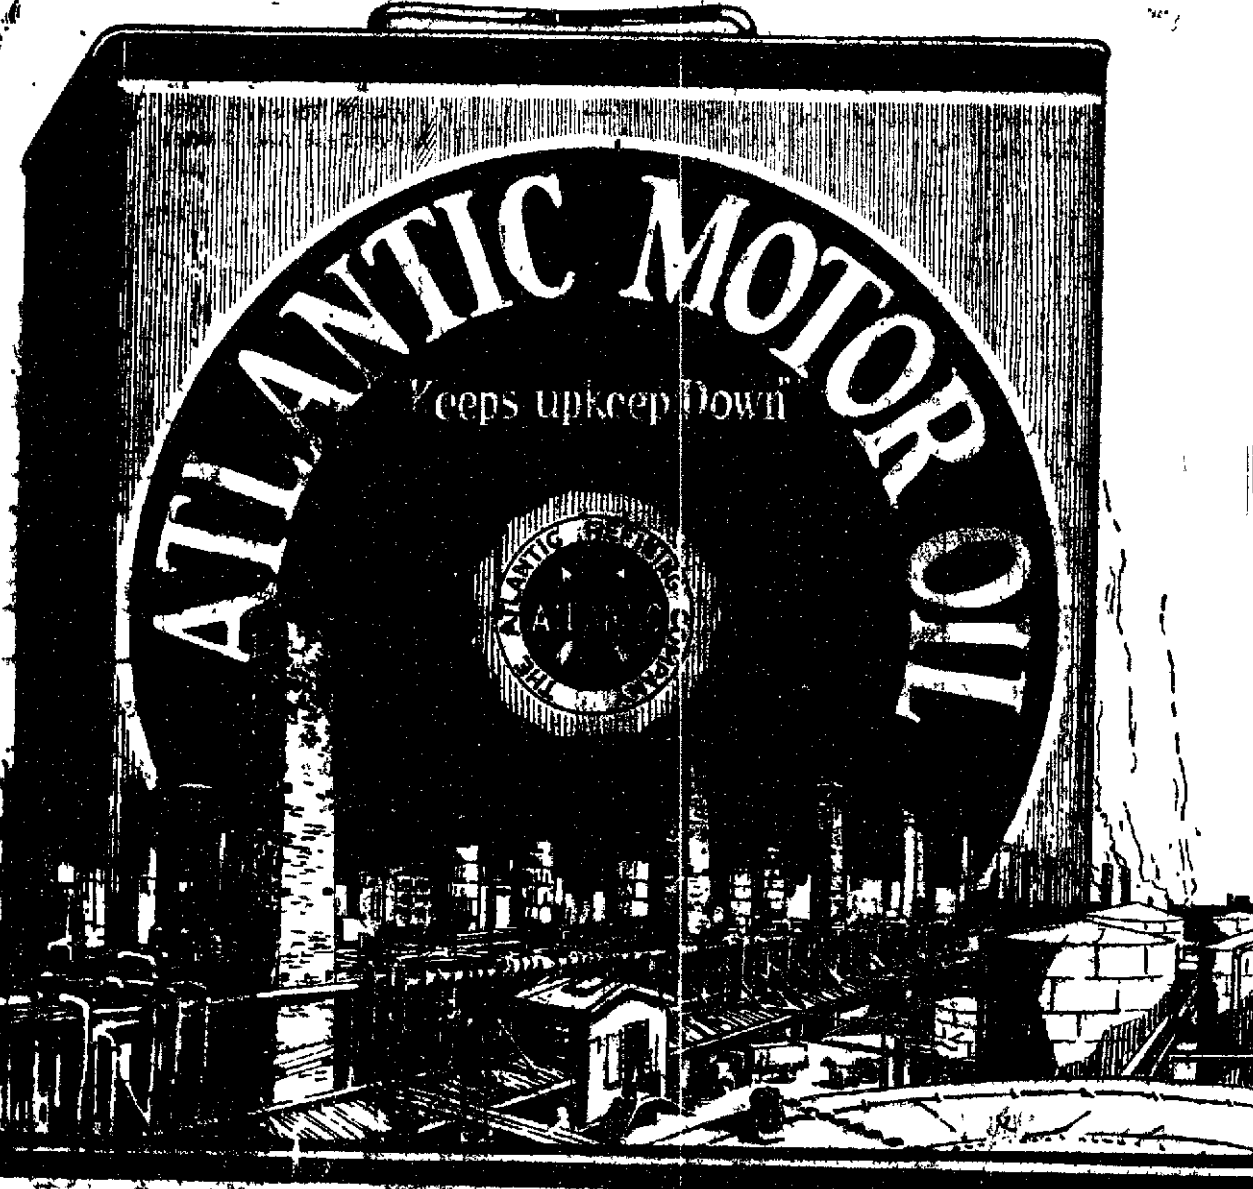

- Better in its capacity to resist heat;
- Better in its capacity to maintain full-power piston seal;
- Better in its capacity to maintain an unbroken protecting film between all friction surfaces;
- Better in lasting qualities;
- Better under all conditions of operation and variations in temperature.

Good as Atlantic Motor Oil always has been, improvement has been the constant watchword of Atlantic engineers. For progress is as logical in lubrication science as it is in the mechanical improvement of the automobile.

Since the days of the first crude "one-lunger," improvement has followed improvement. Better motors—better motor oil!

Lose no time in saying to your dealer, "Put in some of that longer-lasting motor oil the Atlantic people are making."

All types of Atlantic Motor Oil have this improved quality—Atlantic POLARINE, Atlantic Light, MEDIUM, Heavy, Special Heavy and Tractor Engine

Atlantic "one-lunger" where the crude oil is separated into its valuable parts. Atlantic engineers have the facilities for obtaining the utmost in motor oil quality.

THE WINDS OF DEATH

BY R. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1933, by R. Phillips Oppenheim Ampt. NEA Service, Inc.

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and SIR NORMAN GREY, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers' beautiful housemaid, JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice.

In many exploits Michael escapes arrest by taking desperate chances. Janet is an able assistant, but, because he greatly admires the many good qualities he recognizes in her, Sir Norman deals with her leniently. In the Leeds bank robbery Michael narrowly escapes capture and is forced to flee the country. Janet hires a monthly widow living at the Magnificent Hotel in Brighton and plots to steal her mistress diamonds. Sir Norman, however, is frustrated by Sir Norman, who is his wife's uncle.

With whom I was brought into contact day by day. Not one of them could possibly have borne me any ill will; yet I lived among them, waiting for death.

One morning I remember that it was the first of November—I set out for a long tramp, accompanied only by Adams, the keeper, and a couple of dogs. We were on the boundary of my land, looking for stray pheasants in a large field. On my right was a precipitous gorge which extended for about half a mile thickly planted with small fir trees. I was walking by arrangement about 50 yards ahead of Adams, when I was suddenly conscious of a familiar sensation. There was the rip of a bullet singing through the air, a report from somewhere in the gorge, a neat round hole through my felt hat.

"GAWD, A'RIGHT!" yelled Adams. "WHAT BE DOING?" I SHOWED HIM THE HOLE THROUGH MY HAT.

Being for Bee Stings

Curious, enough, the same mail recently brought to the Companion two letters from subscribers who had been reading of remarks about bee stings and the revolutionary life. Both our correspondents wrote to say that ordinary stings such as to be used in laundry work will give almost instant relief if it is painted over and round the place where the bee has delivered her thrust. The treatment is new to us, but it has been successfully employed by both our readers. Youth's Companion.

on to the county police station and left a message for the inspector. He came over to see me that evening, solemn, ponderous and unimpressed. I dismissed him after the usual refreshments had been proffered and accepted. A few further inquiries which I myself made in the neighborhood led to nothing.

I took my little two-seater out to call on a friend a few afternoons afterward, and found the steering gear failed to piece before I had gone a mile. I was thrown into a ditch, but escaped without serious injury. I scarcely needed Sayers' assurance to convince me that he knew nothing of the matter, but even in its damaged state it was quite obvious that the plan had been wilfully withdrawn from the pillar.

THE fact that I was compelled to be a prisoner in the house for several days from an injury to my knee, and worked at unaccustomed hours, was responsible for my accidental discovery of Mrs. Simpson's diary. I came into the room unexpectedly and found her writing. It never occurred to me that she was engaged upon my work, and so I looked over her shoulder. She was writing in a diary, completing her entry for the day before.

N. G. worked for two hours, practiced golf in park, lunched in, took out two-seater in afternoon. Met with accident but was able to walk home. Said little about his injuries, which were not serious. Accepted invitation shoot Woolhanger Manor next Tuesday at eleven o'clock. Probably return across moor at dusk.

Miss Simpson was suddenly conscious of my presence. She placed her hand over the page.

"This is my private diary, Sir Norman," she asserted.

"No I gathered," I replied. "What is your interest in my things, Miss Simpson?"

"A personal one," she assured me. "I appeal to you as a gentleman to let me have the volume."

I confess that I was weak. An alteration of any sort whatever, ending, without doubt, in a struggle for the possession of the diary with this quiet-looking, elderly lady, was peculiarly repugnant to me. I rang the bell.

"I shall order the car to take you to Barnstable for the five o'clock train, Miss Simpson," I said.

She rose to her feet, grasping the book firmly.

"What is your complaint against me, Sir Norman?" she asked.

"During this last week," I told her, "two attempts have been made on my life. I am naturally suspicious of people who keep a close account of my personal movements."

She stood for a moment looking at me through her gold-rimmed spectacles in a dazed, incredulous sort of way. Then she turned and left the room. I never saw her again.

It was that very same afternoon, on my return from the village, where I had gone to mail a letter with my own hands, that I found a gray limousine touring-car, covered with mud, outside my front door, and Adams announced that a gentleman was waiting to see me in the study. To my surprise and infinite satisfaction, it was Rimmington.

"I have this moment posted a letter to you," I said, as we shook hands.

"Anything doing down here?" he asked quickly.

"Too much for my liking," I answered.

"I have come straight through from Basingstoke," he explained. "The Chief rather got the wind up about you."

"Tell me all about it," I begged.

"I wish I could," Rimmington replied as he accepted a cigar and lit it. "You read the papers, I suppose?"

"Regularly."

"You've seen what a hell of a time they've been having around New York? Eleven undiscovered murders in ten days, and several million dollars stolen. The New York police have been working steadily for some time, and made their coup last week. They made half a dozen arrests, but the head of the gang escaped."

"A known person?" I asked.

Investigate The Death Of Pretty Artist's Model In New York Apartment

New York, March 16.—Police investigating the death of Miss Dorothy King, aged twenty-seven, a pretty artist's model, found dead in a 57th street rooming house with a chloroform bottle and bureau drawers ransacked of jewelry were working on a murder theory today. Two men were seen with Miss King the night before the body was found and were sought for questioning. Another man has already been quizzed. Possibilities of robbery were also probed.

The autopsy is to be held today. When discovered Miss King was lying on the bed in a silk night gown and the bed clothing was disarranged indicating she had attempted to escape when attacked. A dinner gown in which she had attended a dinner with a man the night before was found folded neatly on a chair.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Luster With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Weich's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weich's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

NO DETOUR WILL BE NECESSARY AT THE PALEY CROSSING

Sup't. Westcott Relieves
the Situation to Satisfaction of All by Making Announcement.

TRAFFIC TO GO ON

Superintendent of Roads
has asked to inform our Current friends, who are all het up
over the building of that underground
crossing at Paley's farm to eliminate the present grade crossing of the
B. & P. Ry., that their fears are unfounded and while the crossing will
be closed for a few days, the crossing
will be placed as per the decree
of the Public Service Commission and authorization of the State Highway Department, no detour will be necessary. The new crossing and approach
to a new will not interfere with the present traveled road and during all the time of its construction will not interfere with traffic for an instant.

This will indeed be welcome news
to the people who travel the Clear-
field Carversville road.

Sandy Ridge Detour Closed.

During the same conversation with Superintendent Westcott he asked
The Progress to inform the public
that the detour at Sandy Ridge to the new road over the mountain to Tyrone is absolutely impassable and has been closed while the old road from Sandy Ridge over the mountain has
been opened and while the going is
pretty heavy it can be traveled. Mr.
Westcott had a road machine and
crew on this road for a day or two.

Objects to "MURPHIES" WITH THEIR
BUT WIFE, AS USUAL, LAUGHS LAST

This may be a "free country al-
right," and we guess it is—with limitations, but there are a whole darn
lot of things that used to be considered "custom of the country," that don't rise up that way any more, and while we have heard in this same subject several times before and just recently at that we want to rise right here once more to assert without fear of contradiction that it is getting to be a mighty serious and dangerous proposition to attempt to lark your wife. Before the women were accorded equal rights many fellows who used judgment enough to pick themselves
eye whereupon the meek and lowly help next would promptly turn about and offer the other eye for decoration.

That is all over and done with
now in Clearfield county at least,
and if you don't believe us try to hit
the "old woman" in the eye with a pot: when you get home to dinner
see what you get. Peter Shoe-stack, of Smoke Run, found out all
about it yesterday and as a result
that of is now getting free board
down at Sheriff Tom Lowell's "county jail."

When Shoe-stack went to his Bigler township home yesterday his wife
placed a big dish of potatoes "biled
in their jackets" on the table for dinner. Peter was somewhat in his rue and when that wifey nothing makes him madder than to have to
peel potatoes before eating them. He promptly socked the wife of his bosom in the eye with one of the potatoes and followed this up with a general potato barrage, and when the
spuds ran out gently swatted Mrs.
Pete several times on the jaw.

On account of the conditions we have already set out Mrs. Pete wouldn't stand it and going down to Madara got a warrant for friend
husband from Squire Jim Ruffner.
Deputy Constable Ralph Hileman, went to the Shoe-stack home to arrest Peter and when he entered the
home found Pete making himself up
a batch of moonshine.

Shoe-stack, his still, a barrel of mash and some finished product were
taken in tow and brought before the Justice and now the offender is behind the bars at Fort Lowell on the double charge of beating his wife
and attempting to circumvent Andy Volstead and his minions. When you
swat your wife nowadays, men, the
law is heard 'round the whole darn county. Have a care.

Fascisti Movement Spreading Swiftly THREATENS TO SWEEP FROM ITALY TO CEN- TRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

By HENRY W. WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Geneva. (By mail to United Press.)

Following the successful rise to power of the Fascisti in Italy, Central
and Eastern Europe are verging
steadily towards Fascisti.

Bavaria, Hungary and Russia all
now have Fascisti organizations
which correspond in all their fundamental organization, membership,
purpose and methods with that of Italy.

Although in variations exist in each country, both in organization, and purpose, as the result of local political, economic and other conditions, the origin and character of the movement in all the countries where it has
to date sprung into being, is surprisingly the same.

This international wave may be
roughly characterized as a spontaneous expression of determination on
the part of the younger and more hardy elements of each country to take into their own hands the reform
of certain conditions which are due
either to the lack of laws, or the inadequate enforcing of those existing.

Generally speaking, the movement
has found its most vigorous growth
in those countries where political conditions were most unsettled and where
a new force was necessary to insure
the attainment of the ends desired.

The movement is being viewed both
with alarm and with approval, depending largely upon the interests of
those most affected by it.

Naturally, in those countries where
it exists, it is being viewed with great

almost invariably it aims at the eventual overthrow of weak, incompetent governments.

May Be Remedy.

Students of political conditions generally, however, are not so ready to give their seal of disapproval. They are not at all convinced but what this
may offer the one and only means for
the final readjustment of the unsettled political conditions in Europe resulting from the war.

More than one European government, composed of the old time
statesmen who were in power before
the war, have showed themselves inadequate to meet the demands established by the war.

Unless some newer, younger,
stronger element comes into power
and takes the reins both of government and responsibility, the outlook
is considered dark not only for individual countries but for Europe generally.

In Italy, the only country where the new Fascisti element has risen to
power, the change to date has admittedly been most beneficial. The Mussolini element in three months have
done more to establish internal order
and place the internal of Italy, as well as her economic life generally on
a sound basis than all the other governments for the three years preceding.

As a consequence, Italy gives more indication for the moment of quick reconstruction and readjustment from
the war than any other European
country that was as seriously affected
as was she.

JUDGES BECHTOL AND BERGER ARE UNDER CHARGES

Disbarred Lawyer Gets
Back at the Schuylkill
Judges, Filing Serious
Charges at Harrisburg.

WOULD IMPEACH

Harrisburg, Mar. 15.—Judges Harry Oliver Bechtel and Charles E. Berger, of the Schuylkill county court
are gravely accused in requests for
their impeachment filed at Harrisburg yesterday.

Judge Bechtel is president of the court and Judge Berger his associate.
The charges were filed with Speaker
Goodenough, of the House of Representatives, by William Wilhelm, a lawyer, who has been disbarred from
practice.

The Speaker referred the accusations to the House Judiciary Committee, which is asked to ascertain whether the charges have enough
basis to warrant appointment of a committee of investigation. The procedure in the impeachment of a judge
is for the committee to act as a
grand jury and determine whether there shall be a trial. If it so finds
the Senate conducts the trial.

Twenty-one counts, chiefly alleging
personal immorality, are listed
against Judge Bechtel, and thirteen
all relating to his conduct on the bench, against Judge Berger. Both
are accused of being "under the
thumb" of brewery and saloon interests and using their license-granting
privileges for their friends.

The petition further charges that
State Treasurer Charles A. Snyder
has knowledge of Judge Bechtel's infringement of the Act of 1917, which gives him undue influence over his judicial action.

William Wilhelm, who accuses the
judges, was disbarred in Schuylkill
county in 1921, and the Supreme Court, sitting in Philadelphia, upheld
the disbarment. He was accused of using a client's money for his own
purposes. He also was accused of interfering with proper administration
of justice by furnishing an assistant
district attorney with a copy of the trial judge's notes.

As far back as 1909, Wilhelm made
a vigorous attack on the judges of Schuylkill county, of whom Bechtel
was then one. He spoke in general terms of "rascals on the bench." He was an unsuccessful non-partisan candidate for the State Supreme Court in 1914.

PUNKS "DRY" SQUAD PUT IN A BUSY THREE WEEKS; VISIT FOUR COUNTIES AND MADE BIG HAULS EVERYWHERE

Make Jump From Heilwood To
Clarion County, Then To
Clarion In Centre County,
For Big Hauls.

Group Head Ballantine's flying squadron of "hothead hounds" from the Punkstown district headquarters, is throwing consternation in big
chunks into the moonshiners and
bootleggers long operating throughout this mountain region without apparent fear of detection or arrest. As a result of their cross-country flights
the past three weeks they have left behind them a wide-spread path of
destruction of stills, mash and moonshine extending across Clearfield,
Centre, Clarion, Jefferson and Indiana
counties, and accordingly there is
in their wake.

The clean-ups at DuBois, Horatio
and Heilwood have already been given
space in our paper. The activities
we are about to record occurred
during this week. The "dry cavalry,"
who are said to "eat in their saddles,"
is led by Federal Agent N. M. Cress
and made up of Operatives Rankin, Mussell and Quinn. On Monday they
raided the hotel of William Lennon at St. Petersburg, Clarion county, the store of Francis Foust and the farm
home of Steve Bukas, at Knox, in the same county. At each place they captured much contraband moonshine,
while the last named Steve was stew-ing some mash in his still when the
"revenuers" pinched him.

These sassy dry fellows even had
nerve enough to invade the political
empire of "King David" Chambers,
down at Clarion in Centre county on Wednesday last and promptly cut up
high links with John Katchik's hotel
political headquarters for the big boss
and his cohorts. The "drier ap," innocently invaded the bar and had no trouble in having Landlord Katchik
serve them with the best the house
afforded. The "educated" palates of
the raiders told them the "best in the house" was entirely "too good" for
sale under either Andy Volstead's or
the Woner Act and Landlord Katchik was appraised of that fact when a warrant was flashed upon him.

A search of the hotel netted the
"dry boys" sixteen cases of Hork
Vino, with an alcoholic content of 15
to 20 per cent, a quantity of run of
the mill moonshine, several cases of
cordials, wine, etc., and a couple of barrels of beer of such constitution parts that even the raiders hope to be able to find some more time.

All the contraband was seized and dumped into the ditch except enough for evidence, while Landlord Katchik gave $2,000 bail for his appearance when called upon.

PETITION ASKS FOR PAROLE OF M'KEE, SLAYER OF TUBBS

82 Representatives of Ferguson and Knox
Twps. Ask That He Be Returned to Home.

A petition signed by eighty-two of
the representative citizens of Fergeu-
son and Knox townships, neighbors of Abe McKee, now under sentence of
twenty months in jail for involuntary
manslaughter for the killing of E. H.
Tubbs last summer, was presented to Judge Bell yesterday asking that Mc-Kee be paroled in order that he may
look after his family of six children,
the oldest of whom is 16 and the
youngest six years. McKee is a widower and had been both father and
mother to his little ones since the death of his wife several years ago.
The petition recites McKee's previous
good character and standing in the community and asks the court to release him in order that he may again
gather up his little family which has
been scattered to the four points of the compass since McKee's imprisonment.

Judge Bell ordered the petition
placed on file but thus far has taken
no other action upon it.

Everything has been done to make our milk as safe as any milk in the world can be. It comes from farms where the folks are mighty particular about the milk from the time the cow goes into the barn until the milk leaves the farm on our trucks. Then, when it comes to our plant every care is taken to keep the milk sweet and pure.

No time is lost putting the milk through the pasteurization process, after which the milk is kept at an even temperature until it reaches your table.

WHEN its tulip time in Manhattan—or anywhere else—our eyes are going to be gladdened by out-of-the-ordinary suits like that shown here. They will be refreshing for they are made to greet the springtime, of new fabrics, skillfully used, in simple designs. Texture of the materials, colors and color combinations account for more than half their charm. These are the new knitted weaves in silk that lend themselves to the sort of dress that American women seem to like best—dress that is smart, and has a casual quality, that registers a vivid, pleasing impression at first glance and that is simple.

As for simplicity, the suit illustrated hardly needs a description—the picture tells its story so well. You can imagine it in blue and gray with a bodice of plain gray crepe de chine to which bands of plain blue, cut from the silk, are applied, with rows of little, round, gray pearl buttons set across the top of each band. The sleeves are banded with the striped material and the skirt and sleeveless jacket are made of it—the jacket lined with plain crepe de chine.

There are many color combinations and patterns in the new weaves that are inspiring to designers, for there is distinction in the suits made of them, and the mode demands distinction in suits with an insistence that has furthered the cause of the costume suit and put it in a place of first importance in spring wardrobes.

should give their older opponents a speedy battle.

While the above game is going on in Clearfield, Coach Mahaffie and Clearfield High's reserve five will invade Houtzdale and play the school team that rules the northern part of this county.

Although the Houtzdale are a difficult bunch to defeat on their home floor, the Red and Black's "little lightning lads" will give good account of themselves, and a C. H. S. victory is not improbable.

Preliminary at 7:15 At Gym Tonight

The C. H. S. Senior team will play the last Philadelphia High Reserve as a prelude to the varsity-Huntingdon fray. Much student interest is centered in this battle, as the Seniors are leading the inter-class league and the game promises to be a real thriller.

No Viewpoint Can Co-operative Marketing Be Considered Socialistic

By ALVIN T. STEINEL, Colorado Agricultural College.

The history of the co-operative movement in Europe indicates that it came of necessity and force of circumstances, and that is the reason for its present growth in America. What far-sighted leaders of agricultural thought in this country are doing now is to capitalize sentiment while the farmer is in a mood to act and before prosperity again makes him an independent as a rooster on the fence at sunrise.

Herbert Hoover declared that the development of co-operative marketing was of value to business in general, in that it helped to stabilize farm commodities.

"From no viewpoint can co-operative marketing be considered socialistic," said Mr. Hoover, "because it is based upon self-interest of the individual grower. Co-operative marketing is a form of organized capital with the producers providing their own capital. They also will develop their own personnel and system. It holds out the greatest hope for the American farmer to organize himself on an equality with industries."

The problem is bigger than any industry or party, or class or group. It affects all the people and it deserves careful study by every citizen, producer, consumer or middleman.

Character Analysis There Is No Substitute for Long Acquaintance

By PROF. F. A. KINGSBURY, University of Chicago.

As yet, there has not been developed a sufficiently reliable system of character analysis. There is no substitute for long acquaintance. So far, a little bit doubtful about those pet systems—character reading by bumps, handwriting, photographs, letters and short interviews. They may work out in some instances, but they cannot be used as standard, reliable ways of analyzing character.

So far, scientific laboratories, business establishments and others have tried to produce a reliable standardized scale for character reading.

Of course older persons can be judged somewhat by the stamp of vice upon their character, but it is of younger persons we are talking, and the relationship of character to short cut reading such as bumps and stars and handwriting.

Environment, influence of friends and family, and change of circumstances will often change a person's character, and it does not necessarily change any of his features, or make a bump or two less. It is only the prolonged acquaintance that we are capable of judging the character of our associates or friends.

We Are a Hundred Years Behind Even in Methods of Musical Education

By PROF. F. W. DYKEMA, University of Wisconsin.

There are some good things to say for jazz. It is not the principle of the lute is bad, it is more often the performers. Jazz has a new rhythm, arrangement of tones, a piquancy, a nerve and stimulating qualities which are a real contribution to music. Jazz is being wrecked by nerve-racking devices. Cow-bells, rattles and foghorns are drowning out its music. Jazz is the victim of its wild, modern devotees, who are as bad as the old worshippers of darkest Africa.

We are a hundred years behind even in methods of musical education. Free public musical education is the solution of this barbaric condition. One hundred years ago education had to be secured through personal expenditure. Now every child is provided with education as a public duty and necessity. The same principle should be and will be applied to musical training.

We are musically undernourished; America needs good music as badly as good food.

increase in county taxes and as the County Commissioners now faced a deficit in the county treasury and were compelled to increase county taxes five mills already this year he thought the people if approached now would vote down any library proposition and further increase of taxes.

Other members gave their views and no final action was taken, the Educational Committee being instructed to continue their investigation and report their findings at a later meeting.

The Rotarians were treated to a splendid talk on business conditions, past, present and future, by Norris Rogers, representative of Harris & Forbes, investment brokers of Pittsburgh, who was present as the guest of P. T. Davis. Mr. Rogers prefaced his remarks by a catchy reference to Roman history and then in a clear-headed, convincing business talk gave good reason for present business conditions with caution against over-inflation and over-reaching for the future. Roger's remarks were a check full of interest and information and were much appreciated by his hearers.

The guests present in addition to Mr. Rogers were Mr. Alexander of Reynoldsville, Russ Howard, and Henry Moulthrop, of the DuBois Rotary Club.

On Friday, March 23d, the Rotary Club will meet in joint session with the Commercial Club at The Dining Room to listen to an address by Forestry Commissioner Robert Y. Stuart of Harrisburg.

The honor member last evening was E. W. Hess, city engineer, a daddy for the third time. Rotarian Ed. came across with a box of cigars in honor of the little lady who now reigns as queen in the Hess household.

Leontes Mills, Pa., March 15.—Squire Billette's Court was unusually crowded yesterday by those who were interested in the controversy between Mike Oravis and John Shikliko, prominent residents of the Hunkytown section of Big Hill. The proceedings of the Court were hampered considerably on account of court interpreter Bolents having recently had all his teeth extracted and was unable to properly pronounce the many legal terms propounded by the Court as well as the questions answered by the many witnesses.

John and Mike had always been kind fathers, loving husbands and good neighbors, often drinking from the same bottle and never had an unkind word pass between them until the fatal day of March 10, about 4 p. m. John, like Charlie Voinchet's rat, had previously mistaken from that one touch "which makes a howling dervish out of a monk, and a rabbit spit fire a wolfcat's eye" and was at this time much different from the ordinary.

John was returning from the Hetricktown Still where he had been to get a supply of Sabbath luxury. Alleged Proprietor Joe had run out of bottles and John had to return with nothing but a skin full, which it appears was "heaped up, pressed down and running over." As John was passing the home of friend Mike Mike's Mrs. was out in the yard, and as John was just overflowing with "love, emotion and beer" and could not resist from offering some of his affection to friend Mike's frau, which was seriously objected to by Mike's Mrs. It was with much difficulty that John was persuaded to go home and shower his affections on his own wife. However John went home but not to stay. When Mike saw him coming back he immediately lay down a heavy barrage, consisting of kindlingwood, boots and shoes, tin cans, coal shingles and many other things too numerous to mention.

This however did not stop John and on he came. Mike then rushed into the house and procured an axe and gave John a terrific blow on the head, felling him to the ground; and fearing he might rise too quickly gave him a light tan on either side of the head, saying: "die, damn you, die." John's skull and its contents having been previously thoroughly saturated with Roman water, was very elastic and the terrible blow from friend Mike's axe had little effect on it. He immediately arose, went home and sent out an S. O. S. for first aid. Superintendent Davidson got his first aid team together and revived John sufficiently so that he was able to get to Squire Billette's temple of justice, and make information against the attempted murderer. The Court immediately ordered the arrest of Mike, the crucifier, and had him brought to court for trial. After hearing many witnesses and considering the affair from many angles His Honor thought that our country over had too many of these sort of cases in it, and ordered the fighters into a private room by themselves and there to decide who was the guilty one, and who should pay the costs. They were not long in fixing matters satisfactorily to the Court.

Rub Rheumatic Pain From Aching Joints

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not cure. It requires internal treatment. Soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot" and by the time you say Jack Robinson comes the rheumatic pain and disappears. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a liniment—strong, penetrating, which never stops points and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones. Stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia. Lumber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment, you'll be free from pain, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

Put your faith in Kellogg's Bran—It relieves Chronic Constipation!

If you suffer with mild or chronic constipation, go after it right away! Constipation has probably wrecked more lives than any one human ailment. It is the basis of many diseases, leading even to such diseases as Bright's and diabetes. In its milder form constipation creates sick headaches, biliousness, dizziness, nausea, bad breath, pimples, etc. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve constipation permanently if it is eaten regularly. Kellogg's is ALL BRAN—that's why it acts as nature's perfect sweeper, cleanser and purifier. To safeguard your own health, to protect your family, serve Kellogg's Bran each day. As a constipation preventive or for mild cases, eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, as much with each meal. But keep at it persistently—heat con-

Better!

ATLANTIC engineers have perfected a still better Atlantic Motor Oil—

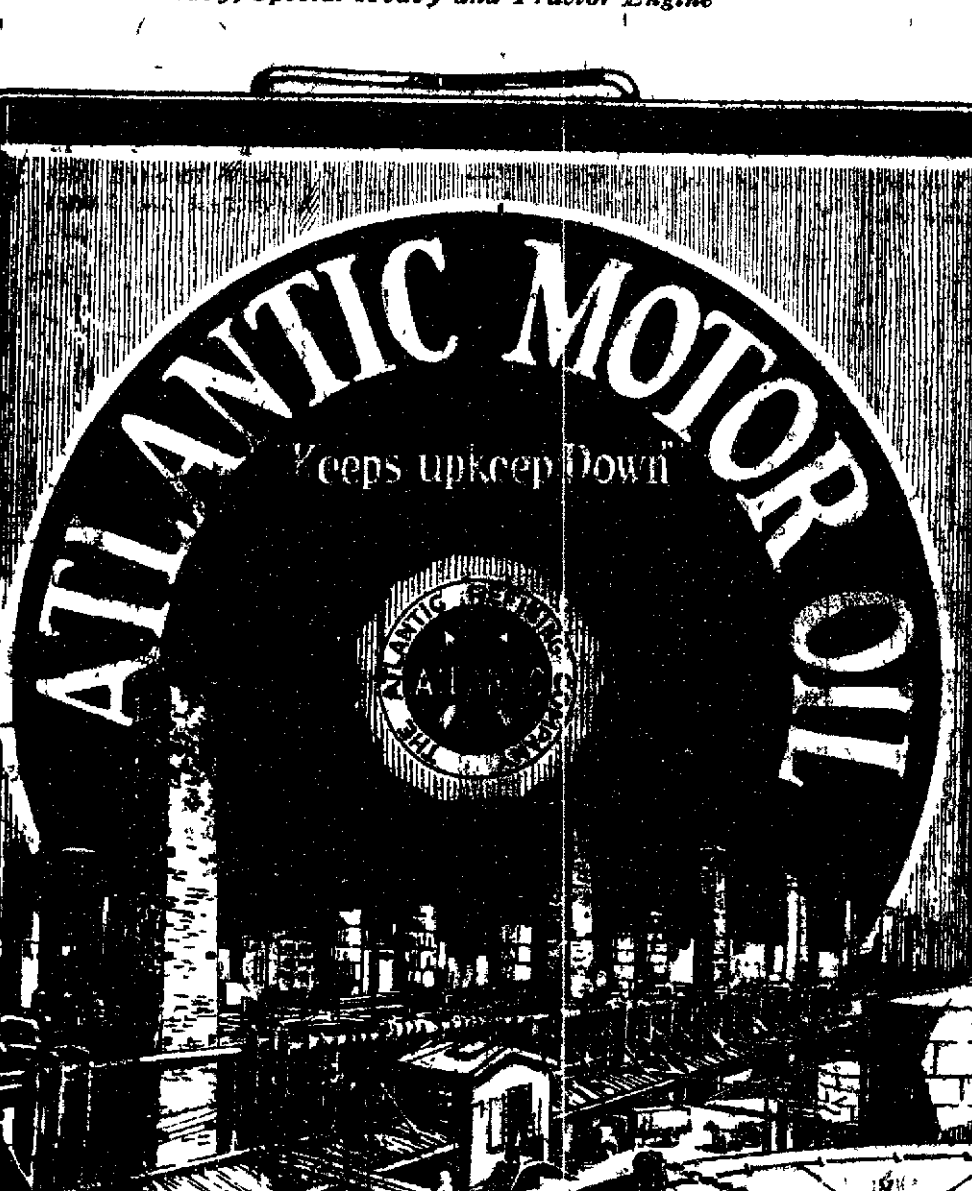

- Better in its capacity to resist heat;
- Better in its capacity to maintain full-power piston seal;
- Better in its capacity to maintain an unbroken protecting film between all friction surfaces;
- Better in lasting qualities;
- Better under all conditions of operation and variations in temperature.

Good as Atlantic Motor Oil always has been, improvement has been the constant watchword of Atlantic engineers. For progress is as logical in lubrication science as it is in the mechanical improvement of the automobile.

Since the days of the first crude "one-lunger," improvement has followed improvement. Better motors—better motor oil!

Lose no time in saying to your dealer, "Put in some of that longer-lasting motor oil the Atlantic people are making."

All types of Atlantic Motor Oil have this improved quality—Atlantic POLARINE, Atlantic Light, MEDIUM, Heavy, Special Heavy and Tractor Engine

Atlantic "Grade" oil is superior to all other oils in its valuable properties. Atlantic oil is the best for keeping the engine in top condition.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Weich's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weich's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.
